

Chef Spencer Drudy | Head Chef | Terra GR

Lowell, Michigan's own Chef Spencer Drudy has been cooking since he was just 16 years old. He started his culinary career at Judson's Steakhouse in downtown Grand Rapids before moving on to become the head chef at MudPenny in Ada specializing in unique breakfast and brunch items. He currently creates delicious selections at Terra GR in Eastown and delights in bringing modern and innovative techniques to an ever-changing menu. A true culinary artist at heart, Chef Spencer is passionate about using local ingredients and creating something amazing from scratch. Aside from competing in Taste of Hope West Michigan, Chef Spencer recently also competed in a very special event for Meals on Wheels showing his compassion for bettering the community he calls home.
